CORAM : HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE AKSHAY H.MEHTA

Date : 04/04/2007

ORAL JUDGMENT

1. RULE. Mr. Champaneri learned Central Government Standing Counsel waives service of rule on behalf of the respondent. At the request of the parties, the matter is taken up for final hearing today itself.

2. The petitioner has approached this Court praying for appropriate direction on the respondent authority to carry out necessary correction in her passport on the basis of the birth certificate. It is averred in the petition that in the passport her birth date has been entered on the basis of the school leaving certificate which does not reflect her correct date of birth. She, therefore, wants to get her birth date corrected in the passport.

3. I have heard Mr. B. J. Satwara learned advocate for the petitioner and Mr. Champaneri learned Central Government Standing Counsel for the respondent. I have also perused the contents of the petition together with annexures. So far as the grievance of the petitioner is concerned, it can be taken care of by passing following direction.

3.1. This Court has often held that the birth certificate is the authenticate document, so far as the date and place of birth are concerned. It will prevail upon any other document that may come into existence subsequently.

3.2. The respondent is, therefore, directed to consider the application for issuance of passport of the petitioner on the basis of the birth certificate and if all other documents are found to be in order, the same may be issued, if necessary and if otherwise she is not found ineligible.

3.3. Since this exercise is required to be carried out because of the fault on the petitioner's side, the petitioner is directed to pay costs of Rs.2,500=00.

4. The petition is allowed. Rule is made absolute.
